Public Elementary and Secondary School Heads
All Others Concerned

1. Consistent with the principle of competency-based human resource systems upheld by the Civil Service Commission (CSC) and the Department of Education (DepEd) through its Agency Merit Selection Plan (MSP) and in view of the implementation of Executive Order (EO) No. 174, s. 2022, on Establishing the Expanded Career Progression System for Public School Teachers, DepEd, through the Bureau of Human Resource and Organizational Development, in coordination with the CSC, has reviewed the Qualification Standards (QS) for DepEd teaching and school principal positions.
2. The Department, through this Order, formally adopts CSC Resolution No. 2500471 dated May 28, 2025, which approved the revised QS for Teacher I to Teacher III, Master Teacher I to Master Teacher IV, and School Principal I to School Principal IV positions, as well as the QS for Teacher IV to Teacher VII and Master Teacher V positions created by virtue of EO No. 174, s. 2022.
3. This shall cover all school principals and teaching positions within the public basic education sector, both elementary and secondary levels (junior and senior high school), except Special Science Teacher (SST) and Special Needs Education Teacher (SNET) positions. All appointments to covered positions shall be governed by the DepEd Merit Selection Plan (MSP), along with subsequent guidelines on Recruitment, Selection, and Appointment (RSA), and applicable Civil Service rules. The existing QS for SST and SNET positions shall remain in effect unless otherwise modified or amended through subsequent issuances.
4. Effective immediately upon the issuance of this Order, all appointments, including promotion and reclassification of positions, shall strictly adhere to the amended and newly created QS. Vacant positions that were published or posted before the effectivity of this Order shall be processed under the QS in force at the time of their publication or posting.
